

Parents and Students,

Please see the following information regarding activities for the week.

December Campus Ministry Projects:

Please do not forget to have your child participate in the Campus Ministry Projects this week!!

McAuley: This month, the project is to raise money to adopt families for Christmas. To raise money, the students will sell chips everyday during the lunches. On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, donuts will be sold before school. Chips are available for $1.00 and donuts will cost $1.50 per donut.

St. Peters: Students will be having a competition between religion classes to see which class can bring the most canned vegetables to be donated to the Outreach House. The class that wins will have an ice cream party hosted by Sister Joan!

National Honor Society Book Drive:

The National Honor Society is hosting a book drive this week (December 7th through 11th). Used or new books are welcome! Have your children outgrown some of his/her childhood or tween books? Do you have any books collecting dust and taking up too much space? Share them with the women, mother and children who spend time at the Lafayette House in Joplin. Have your student bring the books in and drop them off in one of the colorfully wrapped boxes!

McAuley Winter Formal:

FBLA is hosting the 2020 Winter Formal on Saturday, December 12th at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $10.00 at the door.

JACS Auction Information:

This year's JACS Auction will be a virtual one in response to the continuing challenges that Covid-19 presents. If you would like to be part of the fun in helping to plan the annual JACS event, please contact Stephanie Bradshaw by email: stephaniej_1@hotmail.com or by phone 316-259-6593. The JACS Auction is an important and fun event for our school, and the funds raised help support the cost of our educational system. Thank you for considering being part of the planning team!
